

SIMPLE FUNERAL, AS WAS HER WISH

Body of "Angel of Crimea"
Laid Away in Little Churchyard.

PUBLIC TRIBUTE PAID

At Memorial Service Cathedral Is Crowded With Mourners.

London, August 20.—Florence Nightingale, the "Angel of Crimea," who died August 13 at her London home, was buried this afternoon beside the bodies of her father and mother in the churchyard of East Wellow, in accordance with her often expressed wishes for a simple private funeral, the ceremony was of the quietest nature, the feature a reminder of her great services to the army and the nation, being the presence of a squad of the Grenadier Guards, who acted as pallbearers. Outside of these, only members of the immediate family and a few retainers were present at the funeral.

A public tribute was paid at a memorial service at noon at St. Paul's Cathedral here, at which King George, Queen Mary, the Queen Mother Alexandra, the war office and admiralty and the greater part of the British public bodies and colonies were represented. The United States ambassador, Whitelaw Reid, and Mrs. Reid were present.

The cathedral was crowded with the official representatives, and thousands of private persons, who had come to do honor to the dead, were unable to find places inside the church and stood outside during the ceremonies.

Among the flowers sent for the funeral were a number of wreaths contributed by American nursing associations, and many prominent members of the American colony in London attended the service.

PRISONERS BEGIN LONDON JOURNEY

Dr. Crippen and Miss Leneve Going Back to Face Charge.

Quebec, Que., August 20.—Dr. Harvey Hawley Crippen and Miss Ethel Clare Leneve were taken from the provincial jail early to-day in separate cabs and driven rapidly westward. The couple, in charge of Detective Sergeant-Detective Mitchell and the two wardresses, boarded the steamer Megantic, which touched here early this afternoon and departed at 7 o'clock to-night for Liverpool.

The detectives with Dr. Crippen and Miss Leneve probably met the Megantic with a tug at Cape Rouge, seven miles west of Quebec, on the St. Lawrence River, where the couple was quietly placed aboard the steamship. Great secrecy was observed by the detectives in removing the prisoners from the jail and to the steamer for a demonstration. The Megantic is due at Liverpool a week from to-day.

The prisoners were driven from the jail in two separate hacks. Inspector Daw and Sergeant Mitchell were with Crippen in one, and the two wardresses in the other. Another hack followed containing local police officers and a representative of the White Star Line, owners of the Megantic.

All three hacks drove to the dock where the party boarded a ferry boat. The ferry, carrying the two wardresses, was transferred to a tug, which started full speed up the river. Meanwhile, wireless orders had been sent to the captain of the Megantic to slow up to permit the party to go aboard. The ferry arrived at the dock at 11 o'clock. The prisoners were put in separate cabs, where they were kept out of sight while the Megantic was at the wharf here.

PLACES AT COLLEGES FOR RETIRED OFFICERS

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Washington, D. C., August 20.—A board of officers of the War Department has just made a report of United States inspection of the military colleges. It has been decided that upon the expiration of the details of active officers now on duty at the military colleges, the vacancies will be filled by retired officers. Georgia Military College, Gordon Institute and Clemson College, South Carolina. Should vacancies occur at these colleges now having retired officers other retired men will be supplied.

SECOND CENSUS OF SUFFOLK

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Suffolk, Va., August 20.—A special census of Suffolk, the second of the year, was completed this afternoon. It gives the town a population of 6,784, as against 3,827 ten years ago, a gain of 51 per cent.

The growth, encouraging as it is, disappoints the expectations of most persons, many of whom believe that it is not accurate, and falls below what the Federal census will show. The count was taken at the preliminary to the transition of the town into a city.

The Suffolk Fair Association was organized last evening. With the following officers: J. E. B. Holladay, president; H. N. Fitzgerald, secretary, and John P. Pinner, treasurer. A charter will be secured. The association will hold its first meeting on August 21. During the same days there will be in session here a county school fair, a farmers' institute, and a teachers' convention.

Horse Got Out of Car. [Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Roanoke, Va., August 20.—When a car in which Little Joe, the well-known Roanoke race horse, was shipped from Cleveland to this city, reached here last night, the horse was missing. A search was instituted and he was found near town to-day. How he got out of the car is a puzzle. A man traveling in the car with the horse says he dropped asleep and may have left the door open. The horse was uninjured.

Watson Will Make Address. [Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Roanoke, Va., August 20.—Thomas E. Watson, the Georgia statesman, author and orator, to-day accepted an invitation to deliver an address at the Roanoke Fair, September 20-23.

PUBLIC AUCTION SALE OF THAT VALUABLE PROPERTY KNOWN AS Hotel Willard MEHERRIN, VA.

At the request of the owner, we will sell at public auction on the premises, SATURDAY, AUGUST 27TH, AT 3 P. M.

The above described property is situated on the main public road or thoroughfare in the growing railroad town of Meherrin, Va., at the junction of the Southern and Virginian Railroads, and is easily the best located property in the village for either a hotel or some private residence, fronting the main public road and facing the Southern Railroad about 300 yards from the station. The lot has a frontage of about 200 feet, with a depth of over 400, and contains between 4 and 5 acres.

The improvements consists of a two-story frame dwelling of eight rooms, occupied for the past year as a hotel, and enjoying a good transient trade with all the regular boarders they can accommodate; servants' house in yard, ice house, stable with six stalls, carriage house, corn and wood shed, house and two poultry houses, fine orchard of general variety fruit in full bearing, fine lawn with large shade trees, splendid view of the town and its surrounding country. The lot frontage for large store in which to conduct a kind of mercantile business. On account of the junction of the Southern with the new Virginian Railroad, the trade of this town is rapidly increasing and this property is bound to rapidly increase in value.

The only reason it is offered for sale is on account of the owner having business interests in another State that requires his immediate, personal attention.
